SUMMER 2023

WATER CARNIVAL RECAP CONGRATULATIONS MONTANA SWAJA!

Commodore Don & First Mate Jodi DeMeyer headed up the 80th Annual Jaycee Water Carnival. As usual, all events were well-attended by the Hutchinson community. Many CB staff members volunteered their services. The candidate we sponsored, Montana Swaja, was crowned Water Carnival Princess.

The Boat Parade Winner: "We'll be your hometown bank to infinity and beyond!"

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT DAIRY DAYS

The Hutchinson Area Chamber of Commerce Agricultural Task Force hosted another successful Dairy Day event. CB President, Anthony Hanson, participated in the cow-milking contest.

NEW STAFF MEMBER

MASON REESE

Mason Reese joins Citizens Bank & Trust Co. as a Credit Analyst in the Commercial Department. His main responsibilities include analyzing financial data to assess a new or existing loan applicant's creditworthiness by reviewing a borrower's payment history, along with liabilities, earnings, and assets they possess. Reese previously worked for Gate City Bank as a Mortgage Loan Origination Assistant.

Bank as a Mortgage Loan Origination Assistant.

Mason is also active in the Hutchinson community. He is a volunteer for the Junior Achievement and Meals on Wheels programs. Additionally, he will be volunteering with the ISD 423 Summer Feeding Program.

Originally from Marshall, Minnesota, Reese graduated from St. Cloud State University in 2020 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance. He and his wife, Molly, live in Hutchinson.

PATTY DALE RETIREMENT

Patty spent almost 4 years as the Customer Service/Safe Deposit Box Attendant. We wish her well in her retirement!

RENEE BRYAN RETIREMENT

We would like to thank Renee for almost 44 years of service to CB. Over the years she worked in the mortgage, personal banking and commercial departments. She was a familiar face to many customers. Congratulations and enjoy your well-earned retirement!
