COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

COMMUNITY IMPACT MONTH

For our Minnesota Bankers Association Community Impact Month Project, our team at Citizens Bank & Trust Co. was proud to volunteer at the State Amateur Baseball Tournament! Thank you to all our staff who volunteered their time, especially those who stayed late to help when coverage was short. Your efforts made the tournament run smoothly and we heard so many great comments about the job you did! We're grateful for the opportunity to give back and support our community.

Ari Zaske, Maddie McKee, Mallory Johnson, Ben Beckman and Daisy Johnson.

Kyle Messner, Tim Ulrich, Anthony Hanson, Heather Knorr, Gary Forcier, Matt Jaunich and Connie Lambert.

NEW GRANDSTAND DONATION

Citizens Bank & Trust Co. and the I.J. Burich Family Foundation each donated $75,000 toward the new grandstand at Veterans Memorial Field. The $700,000 project was made possible through generous support from individuals, businesses and foundations across the community.

The former grandstand had become outdated and structurally insufficient. The new facility includes 270 seats, a press box and stadium chairs located in the center section which made it the perfect setting for the 2025 State Amateur Baseball Tournament.

NEW STAFF MEMBERS

DAISY JOHNSON CREDIT ANALYST

I'm originally from New England—Massachusetts and Rhode Island—but I've also lived in 5 other states. I got my bachelor's degree from the University of Maine at Orono. I love adventuring outdoors, golf, reading, cooking, and shopping. I recently moved to Spicer with my boyfriend, Jonny, who works in the golf industry. We share our home with our kitten, Lynx, and puppy, Koda.

GRACE WITTE TELLER

I graduated from Hutchinson High School in 2019 and currently live in Hutchinson with my son. I had the great opportunity to paint two murals in town. In my free time I love making art, reading and spending time with family.

SHELBY GOULET TELLER/CSR

In my free time I like to bake, thrift, and spend time with my family and friends. I enjoy singing and traveling. I love animals and learning about random topics.

CB NEWS

DEEPFAKE SCAMS ARE HAPPENING LOCALLY!

Imposter scams in particular are on the rise in the age of artificial intelligence (AI). Criminals are using deepfakes, or media that is generated or manipulated by AI, to gain your trust and scam you out of your hard-earned money. Deepfakes can be altered images, videos or audio. They may depict people you know — including friends and family — or public figures including celebrities, government officials and law enforcement.

TIPS TO STAY SAFE

STOP AND THINK. Is someone trying to scare you or pressure you into sending money or sharing personal information?

VERIFY the legitimacy of people and requests by using trusted numbers, official websites and online reverse image/video search tools.

CREATE CODEWORDS or phrases with loved ones to confirm identities.

LIMIT YOUR DIGITAL FOOTPRINT. Photos, voice clips and videos can be used to train deepfake models.

NEVER REPOST videos or images without verifying the source.
